

Lower rates, longer terms, smaller down payments. Now, investing in Costa Rica property is less about beauty and more about

If you have U.S. assets, Jordny can offer American financing for Costa Rican property. You get the security of working with a California-based corporation, the lower rates and longer terms of U.S. financing, and on-location resources and know-how. Unlike other lenders in Costa Rica, Jordny offers you both full-document and stated-option financing.

Put Jordny to work on your behalf. We can find and fund multiple investment properties, fund and manage construction, and market and manage your properties on an ongoing basis. We fund condominium developments, housing developments, and both residential and commercial rental properties.

If you already own property in Costa Rica, we can refinance it to free up cash for development or reinvestment, while saving you money every month. All with the convenience, simplicity, and security of dealing with a U.S.-based financial institution.

Looking to invest in Costa Rican property? Just one phone call helps you find it, fund it, and make it profitable. Call Jordny today. +877-416-0059 / +805-653-1348
